Jane Goss Memorial Golf Tournament

About the Tournament:

The Jane Goss Memorial Golf Tournament is named in honor of former Shippensburg University athletics administrator/coach/educator, Jane Goss. This event, formerly known as the Lady Raiders Golf Tournament, has been the largest fundraiser for women's athletics at Shippensburg University. Proceeds from the tournament are used by women's athletic teams to provide scholarship opportunities and financial support for young women to participate in and gain valuable experience through athletics. You can help by playing a round of golf and/or showing your support through a sponsorship.

Your support of the Jane Goss Memorial Golf Tournament helps strengthen women's athletics at Shippensburg University.

The Jane Goss
Memorial Golf Tournament, formerly known as the Lady Raiders Golf Tournament, has been renamed to honor its co-founder and strong advocate for women's athletics, Jane Goss.

Jane began her 33-year career at Shippensburg University as a professor and as the field hockey and women's tennis coach. Shortly after winning a national championship in field hockey, Jane went on to become the Associate Director of Athletics, where she spent much of her time pursuing schedule expansion and scholarship opportunities for female student-athletes. Today, her legacy lives on as the Jane Goss Memorial Golf Tournament. This initiative continues to provide valuable opportunities for Shippensburg University women's athletics:

Basketball, Cross Country, Field Hockey, Lacrosse, Soccer, Softball, Swimming, Tennis, Track& Field, and Volleyball
